Learning theory: Some Algorithms and Estimates

Fast and practical algorithms for learning from data will be presented. Corresponding estimates are derived from integral operators. Applications to computer graphics will be suggested.