Statistical Computing & Programming

Announcements

- Verify you have access to make before Wednesday, if not install it
 - In your terminal type `make --version`. If you see something similar to the below, then you are good to go. It is okay if the version is different.

- Mac and Linux users should already have this available
- Windows users can install here

Today's objectives

- Work on Lab 07, get started by creating your copy of the template repo at <https://classroom.github.com/a/TkfwEmBV>
 - Work in a breakout room with those in your recent Homework group
- If you didn't get done with Lab 06, work on that as well.
- Ask questions about recent course material
